Folk singer Woody Guthrie immortalized the words, “I’m stickin’ with the union” in a 1941 song about gaining workplace dignity. SMART TD members know that in addition to better pay and benefits, their union acts as the state trooper in the rearview mirror of every company supervisor.

In fact, SMART TD, which represents almost one-third of all railroad workers, files two-thirds of the grievances at the National Mediation Board, a federal agency where disputes with the employer are resolved in an impartial manner.

Because of the work, tears and sweat of those union organizers and members who came before you, you know that every day on the job you are not fighting battles with the employer by yourself.
